DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Harwood et al (U.S. Patent 4,186,999).

Regarding claims 1-3, Harwood et al disclose a base member (50) for ferrule type connector, said base member having: a first hollow bore (bore where a ferrule 56 is inserted); a recess (where receptacle 52 is inserted) and Harwood et al shows in figure 4 where the internal perimeter of the recess around latching member 76 that is different than the rest of the internal perimeter of the recess. Harwood et al show a post (part that surrounds the ferrule end in figure 4).

Regarding claim 4, Harwood et al show the post end in alignment with at least a portion of a termination region (of the base member 50).

Regarding claim 5, Harwood et al show a termination region (of the ferrule) that is disposed between the recess having two different internal perimeter.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

4. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over applicant's admitted prior art as shown in figures 1A and 1B and further in view of Kang et al (U.S. Patent 6,629,780 B2).

Applicant's admitted prior art teaches all the claimed limitations except a recess having two different internal perimeters. Kang et al teaches inserting a fiber into an opening and further teaches having a wide opening on the side where fibers will be inserted while having a narrower opening at the point where the fibers exit makes fiber insertion easier. Thus, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use a wider opening in applicant's admitted prior art to make the insertion of the ferrule into the base easier.

Conclusion

5. The prior art documents submitted by applicant have been considered and made of record (note the attached copy of form PTO-1449).

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Kerr et al (US 2001/0030422 A1) show a conduit connector. Hultermans (U.S. Patent 5,542,015) shows an optical fiber connector with a base member (204) having a post (284) and a recess formed between the bore and 291. Lampert (U.S. Patent 6,547,450 B2) teaches a base member having stepped recess (see Fig. 4).
